

Patient guide

A step by step guide to our patients

We have prepared this guide to assist you if you are considering (or have planned) surgery with Mr Rochira. In addition to answering the questions that most of our patients have about their surgery, this guide also explains Mr Rochira's fee structure and includes important information on how we handle and protect your personal data. If after reading this guide you still have questions, then of course please do not hesitate to contact us. We are here to help.

A step by step guide to our patients

Mr Rochira is a Consultant Plastic & Reconstructive Surgeon and registered as a plastic surgeon in Italy and the United Kingdom. In the United Kingdom, Mr Rochira is listed on the General Medical Council's Specialist register in Plastic Surgery.

Mr Rochira is a member of the following professional bodies:

- International Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgery (ISAPS)
- British Association of Plastic Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgeons (BAPRAS).
- Italian Association of Aesthetic Plastic Surgery (AICPE)
- Italian Society of Ultrasound in Medicine and Biology (SIUMB)

Mr Rochira carries out a wide range of surgical and non-surgical cosmetic and reconstructive procedures.

Mr Rochira offers pre-operative consultations and screening for all surgical procedures and provides post-operative care and review appointments for all patients following their surgery.

Your first consultation with Mr Rochira

This is Mr Rochira's chance to get to know you and discuss whether the treatment you have chosen is the best way forward for you. He will ascertain your expectations and then discuss realistically what results could be achieved with treatment. An examination will be carried out and measurements and photographs will be taken to note any irregularities/asymmetry.

It is important for anyone considering cosmetic surgery to realise that it can satisfy many needs and for some people often provides that extra measure of confidence, which may otherwise be difficult to achieve. However, it is not the answer to life's problems and the decision to have cosmetic surgery should only be taken after careful consideration.

Should you require a chaperone for this or any other appointment please let us know, prior to the day of the consultation. You may bring a friend or family member with you as chaperone or else with sufficient prior notice we may be able to arrange for a chaperone to be present.

Your Treatment Plan

Mr Rochira will discuss your options when it comes to the proposed procedure and will ensure that you make an informed decision that works around your lifestyle and needs. Following this discussion and examination, Mr. Rochira may advise you that it is not in your best medical interests to proceed with surgery. The consultation fee is not refundable if you are deemed unsuitable at the initial or second consultation.

Your Medical History

It is important that you provide Mr Rochira with accurate information detailing every aspect of your past medical history, including any illnesses, operations, drugs – including recreational, allergies and any significant family history of disease, e.g. Breast cancer. Your personal safety is paramount and if you withhold any relevant information then you are potentially placing your own safety at risk. Please also include previous treatments that you have had to the area where you are seeking surgery.

GP Information

Your GP is responsible for your day to day healthcare and as part of understanding your medical history, Mr Rochira strongly recommends that you keep him/her advised if you are going to proceed with a cosmetic surgical procedure. However, we are obliged to point out that you have every right to keep the matter private if you wish to do so and we will seek your consent to contact your GP for supporting background information about your health status. In certain circumstances, it may be necessary, prior to surgery, for us to contact your GP and/or any other relevant specialist that you may have seen previously. This is entirely for your own safety.

Risk of Complications

Any surgical operation or procedure carries with it the risk of complications. The fact that cosmetic surgery is voluntarily undertaken does not mean that complications may not occur. Mr Rochira will discuss the main potential risks of surgery associated with you during your consultation. The conditions and risks associated specifically with your surgery are detailed in your pre-op worksheet that you will sign at your first consultation with Mr Rochira. Please ask Dr Rochira or his secretary if you would like to have a copy of your pre-op worksheet. As a patient it is important that you balance the potential risk of complications with the potential benefits to you of having the surgical procedure.

The Follow-up Information and Call

Following your initial consultation with Mr Rochira, we will get in touch with additional written information about the specific procedure you're interested in and answer any questions that you may have.

We will explain the following aspects of the patient pathway with you including.

- The process from Mr Rochira's consultation to the day of surgery itself and the aftercare provided;
- The services and facilities that Mr. Rochira provides;
- If appropriate, to discuss treatment date availability, and
- Explain the fee structure and all associated financial issues
- However it is important to appreciate that it is not the intention of this telephone conversation to discuss clinical/medical matters or to assist you to make any clinical decisions.

Your Second Consultation, if required

All patients have the opportunity for a second consultation in order to help them to decide whether to proceed with surgery. This second consultation will be held at least 14 days after the first and it is another opportunity for you to ask any further questions and for Mr Rochira to carry out further assessments if needed. The second consultation fee is £100 and is waived if you have already booked your surgery and paid a deposit.

Cosmetic surgery is a purely elective procedure and careful consideration should be given to both the potential benefits and the risks, before making a decision to proceed. Mr Rochira always recommends that following the first consultation with him you allow a period of at least 14 days before making a decision to proceed with surgery. This is all about giving you the time and space to consider your options.

If you decide to proceed with surgery then Mr Rochira may carry out a pre-admission consultation at the second consultation, or else that may occur at a later date.

Once you have decided that you wish to proceed with surgery, we will book you in for the procedure and explain the next steps. We will then send you a pre-admission letter with everything you need to know before your procedure.

Pre-admission Consultation

A pre-admission consultation is carried out either by Mr Rochira on the date of your second consultation or it may be carried out by a nurse at the clinic/hospital. You will be asked to provide detailed medical history and home circumstances, medications you might need to stop prior to surgery. At this time, we will take blood sample from you and MRSA swabs as part of the pre-op assessment as needed.

Mr Rochira is only able to provide you with the best advice if you provide him with every aspect of your past medical history. This is including illness, operations, drugs, allergies and any significant family history of disease.

Your personal safety is paramount in Mr Rochira's mind. If you withhold any relevant information then you are potentially placing yourself at risk.

We will require your written consent to contact your GP to request certain information about your medical history and so please ensure that you have the details of your GP practice with you.

In the interest of patient safety, all patients are assessed against our patient selection criteria and the specific hospital regulations. Following your consultation and review of your past medical history, Mr Rochira or pre-operative nurse will choose any pre-operative tests considered appropriate, most of which are routine blood tests. If necessary, Mr Rochira may request further tests such as ECG, X-Ray, scan or specialist assessment and these tests will involve additional fees as only routine tests and screening programs are included in your inclusive fee package. Mr Rochira will advise you of any such fees that you will be required to fund yourself. You must understand that medical information and tests will help to reduce operative risk and encourage a smooth post-operative recovery and if you do not agree to additional tests recommended by Mr Rochira then it may not be possible for you to proceed with surgery.

For some patients the collation and review of all this information can take longer than expected and it may be necessary to postpone or cancel planned surgery. We always try to give as much notice as possible but your surgery could be cancelled for medical reasons at any point in the pathway, up to and including on the actual day of surgery. If this is the result of discrepancies between your medical history and GP letter or missing important information, a cancellation fee may apply.

Patient Photographs – All patients are required to have pre, intra and post-operative photographs taken for their confidential medical record and for legal purposes. Mr Rochira will not provide surgery to patients who decline to have such photographs taken.

Consent forms for Surgery

Consent forms must be signed to ensure that before your operation you and Mr Rochira are both in agreement about the procedure that has been planned for you. The consent forms are also used to ensure that you understand all of the potential benefits and complications of the chosen procedure.

You will not be able to proceed with any treatment from Mr Rochira unless all consent forms are completed.

Day of Surgery

Every patient is unique and individual. We will give you all the personal information you need for your surgery. Depending on which operation you are having, you may be required to stay overnight in hospital. Whilst you are in hospital your food, care and medication are all included in the price.

We advise that you bring an overnight bag including comfortable clothes to travel to and from the hospital and make travel plans on returning home prior to this day. Please note, you cannot drive home following your procedure and so you will need to arrange transport in advance.

Your After Care

After surgery, you will receive comprehensive advice on how to care for yourself during your recovery. In addition, there will be post-operative appointments to attend which is part of our ongoing care is for as long as you need it. After all, your recovery is a completely individual process and caring for you throughout is a big part of our aftercare promise to you. We will also arrange regular follow-up calls and review to check on your progress, answer any questions you might have and advise on anything that might help your recovery.

Surgery Fees & Deposit

Following your 1st consultation with Mr Rochira you will receive a full quotation and the anticipated cost of your surgery. A deposit will always be required at the time of booking your surgical procedure and the amount of the deposit will depend upon the procedure. All fees for private consultations and surgery with Mr Rochira are payable to Nuforma Limited.

Rescheduling of Surgery

If you book a date for surgery and decide to reschedule, no rescheduling fee will apply if you give us at least 30 days notice. If you provide less than 30 days notice a rescheduling fee of £250 will apply if surgery is postponed up to 90 days later. If surgery is postponed longer than 90 days, a higher fee (up to £500 may apply).

Cancellations and Refunds

When a patient confirms a date for their surgery, Mr Rochira will set aside time in his diary for the operation and also book an operating theatre for the operation. Therefore in certain circumstances, cancellation fees will apply.

If you provide us with 14 days to 48 hours notice that you wish to cancel your surgery, the cancellation fee is 50 % of the total fee for the surgery.

Cancelling less than 48 hours before the surgery the cancellation fee is 100% of the total fee for the surgery.

The Consultation Fee with Mr Rochira is 100% non-refundable at all times. For the avoidance of doubt, the consultation fee is non-refundable even if you are deemed unsuitable for surgery, or if you decide for whatever reason, not to proceed with surgery.

Readmission Policy

Up to 1 year after your original surgery

If after your operation, you experience any clinical complications and Mr Rochira agrees that further surgery is appropriate to address these, then Mr Rochira will provide all surgical and hospital services free of charge; although any personal expenses such as travel costs or loss of earning are the patient's own responsibility.

Please note, that the assessment of the outcome of a cosmetic surgery procedure involves a great deal of subjectivity. If Mr Rochira decides in his sole professional opinion that the results of your surgery are within the normal limits, then further surgery will not be possible.

Mr Rochira cannot commit to providing continuing surgery under the terms of the readmission policy if the results of the surgery provided has been affected by changes in life style, pregnancy, illness or the natural aging process.

This policy will not apply if a patient fails to attend review appointments or follow the advice and guidance of Mr Rochira or his clinical team.

After 1 year of the date of your original surgery

Usual fees will apply for any readmission that occurs more than 1 year from the date of the first surgical procedure.

Complaints Policy

Mr Rochira uses third party facilities to perform surgery, hence cannot be responsible for any aspect of hospital care that you are not happy with.

In the event that you are unhappy with any aspect of your surgery, please initially contact Mr Rochira who will in the vast majority of cases be able to resolve matters himself.

You are entitled to have a second opinion by a different qualified Plastic Surgeon, however you will be responsible for any cost incurred. If you would like a second opinion then Mr Rochira will be happy to suggest the names of suitably qualified and experienced professional colleagues.

If you wish to make a formal complaint, you should do so by email sent to info@dariorochira.co.uk

For reason of data protection and patient confidentiality, we will only acknowledge receipt of your complaint by email, response/s will be sent in writing, and we will therefore require your address. We may also require further information from you for verification purposes.

A complaint should be made as soon as possible and within 1 month of the date of the event which is the subject of the complaint or 1 month after the matter first came to the attention of the complainant. A written acknowledgement will be sent within 5 working days and our formal response will be sent within 30 working days. If we need longer to provide our formal response then we will inform you.

Privacy Information

Nuforma Limited is registered with the Information Commissioner and all informations you provide will be kept confidential and processed in accordance with the obligations imposed by the Data Protection Act 2018 and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation).

A summary of how information in your medical record is used

Mr Rochira handles medical records in-line with laws on data protection and confidentiality.

We share medical records with those who are involved in providing you with care and treatment including any hospitals where you may be booked into or admitted for surgery to be carried out by Mr Rochira.

In some circumstances we will also share medical records for medical research, for example to find out more about why people get ill.

We share information when the law requires us to do so, for example, to prevent infectious diseases from spreading or to check the care being provided to you is safe.

You have the right to be given a copy of your medical record.

You have the right to object to your medical records being shared with those who provide you with care.

You have the right to object to your information being used for medical research and to plan health services.

You have the right to have any mistakes corrected and to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Please see the specific privacy notices on our website or speak to a member of staff for more information about your rights.

Our full Privacy Notice is contained in the next section.

Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice describes the personal data we collect from you and the uses we make of it:

- (i) to provide you with healthcare and for related activities,
- (ii) for medical research purposes, and
- (iii) so we can meet our legal requirements.

Our Contact Information (Data Controller)

NUFORMA LTD

WELLINGTON HOUSE

273-275 HIGH STREET

LONDON COLNEY, HERTFORDSHIRE

AL2 1HA

TELEPHONE: +44 (0) 7738233604

EMAIL: info@dariorochira.co.uk

References to ‘we’ or ‘us’ in this Privacy Notice or document is in all cases a reference to NUFORMA LTD.

What personal data do we collect?

The personal data we collect depends on whether you just visit our website or visit us as a patient. If you visit our website, you do not need to provide us with any personal data. However your browser transmits some data automatically, such as the date and time of retrieval of one of our web pages, your browser type and settings, your operating system, and the last web page you visited.

If you are a patient, personal data is required in order to provide you with medical treatment and related purposes such as contacting you to confirm appointments, scheduling stays at a hospital where you may be admitted for surgery, processing payments for your surgery. It may also be required to provide you with marketing information if you have consented to us contacting you for this purpose or if we have another legal basis to contact you.

The types of data we may collect includes but is not limited to:

- Your name, address, date of birth and your contact information
- Details of your next of kin
- GP name and address
- Financial information
- Health insurance information
- Confidential correspondence from other health care providers
- Your medical history
- Information that you provide on consent forms that you complete
- Digital images or photographs

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to us over the internet. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Under data protection legislation, we must have one of a number of reasons for processing your personal data. Below we outline the basis we rely upon and an example of some of the purposes for which the data is used.

Consent – in some situations we ask for your consent to process your data for the purpose that we have identified on the document seeking your consent. For example we may ask you if you wish to receive our newsletters which are sent by email.

Contractual Obligations – sometimes we may need your data to fulfil our obligations to you, for example if you wish to book an appointment with us we may need your payment details, address and contact details to confirm the appointment.

Legal Compliance – there may be situations where we are required by law to process your data. For example, we may require you provide proof of ID and age prior to treatment.

Legitimate Interests – we may require your data to pursue our interests in a way that might reasonably be expected as part of running our business and which does not significantly impact upon your rights or freedom. For example we will use the contact details you provide, to call/SMS/email you regarding any enquiry you make about us.

Handling of Sensitive Personal Data

Some information that you provide to us will be classified under the Data Protection Act 2018 and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (otherwise known as the General Data Protection Regulation) as special category data or sensitive data. Below is the additional legal basis that we rely upon for the handling of your sensitive personal data.

Part 1 – Providing you with healthcare

We keep medical records confidential and comply with the General Data Protection Regulation.

We hold your medical record so that we can provide you with safe care and treatment.

We will also use your information so that we can check and review the quality of the care we provide. This helps us to improve our services to you.

- We will share relevant information from your medical record with other health or social care staff or organisations when they provide you with care. For example, we will share information when we refer you to another healthcare professional, clinic or hospital. Or we may send details about your prescription to your chosen pharmacy.
- For more information on how we share your information with organisations who are directly involved in your care can be found below.

- You have the right to object to information being shared for your own care. Please speak to us if you wish to object. You also have the right to have any mistakes or errors corrected.

Other important information about how your information is used to provide you with healthcare

Safeguarding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sometimes we need to share information so that other people, including healthcare staff, children or others with safeguarding needs, are protected from risk of harm. • These circumstances are rare. • We do not need your consent or agreement to do this. • Please ask us if you would like to know more information about this.

We are required by law to provide you with the following information about how we handle your information.

Purpose of the processing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To give direct health or social care to individual patients. • For example, when a patient agrees to a referral for direct care, such as to a hospital, relevant information about the patient will be shared with the other healthcare staff to enable them to give appropriate advice, investigations, treatments and/or care. • To check and review the quality of care. (This is called audit and clinical governance).
Lawful basis for processing	These purposes are supported under the following sections of the GDPR: Article 6(1)(f) ‘...for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller...’; and Article 9(2)(h) ‘necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services...’ Clinic staff will also respect and comply with their obligations under the common law duty of confidence.

Recipient or categories of recipients of the processed data	The data may be shared with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • healthcare professionals and staff employed by or working with Mr Rochira in the provision of your care; • hospitals where you have been or are going to be admitted; • your general practitioner ('GP Clinic'); • out of hours services; • diagnostic and treatment centres; • private health insurance companies; • any third parties engaged by us for the provision of telephone answering and appointment management services; • or other organisations involved in the provision of direct care to individual patients, and • the Data Processor (as that term is defined in the GDPR) who manages any infrastructure for us, including our email network.
Rights to object	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have the right to object to information being shared between those who are providing you with direct care. • This may affect the care you receive – please speak to us if you have any concerns. • You are not able to object when information is legitimately shared for safeguarding reasons. • In appropriate circumstances it is a legal and professional requirement to share information for safeguarding reasons. This is to protect people from harm. • The information will be shared with the local safeguarding service Westminster Social Services.
Right to access and correct	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have the right to access your medical record and have any errors or mistakes corrected. Please speak to us if you wish to know more about this. • We are not aware of any circumstances in which you will have the right to delete correct information from your medical record; although you are free to obtain your own legal advice if you believe there is no lawful purpose for which we hold the information and contact us if that legal advice confirms a different view.
Retention period	Medical records will be kept in line with the law and national guidance.

Right to complain	You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. If you wish to complain follow this link https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/ or call the helpline 0303 123 1113
Data we get from other organisations	We may receive information about your health from other organisations who are involved in providing you with health and social care. For example, we may request information from your GP to help us determine your suitability for surgery, or if you are admitted to hospital for treatment or an operation, the hospital may send us information regarding your treatment there. This means your medical record at our clinic is kept up-to date when you receive care from other health professionals.

Part 2 – How your information is used for medical research

Medical research

We may share information from medical records:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> to support medical research when the law allows us to do so, for example to learn more about why people get ill and what treatments might work best; we may also use your medical records to carry out our own research. This is important because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the use of information from medical records is very useful in developing new treatments and medicines; medical researchers use information from medical records to help answer important questions about illnesses and disease so that improvements can be made to the care and treatment patients receive.
--

We will share information with external medical research organisations only with your explicit consent or when the law requires us to do so.

You have the right to object to your identifiable information being used or shared for medical research purposes. Please speak to the practice if you wish to object

We are required by law to provide you with the following information about how we share your information for medical research purposes.

Purpose of the processing	Medical research and to check the quality of care which is given to patients.
----------------------------------	---

Lawful basis for processing	The following sections of the GDPR mean that we can use medical records for research Article 6(1)(e) – ‘processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller’. Article 9(2)(a) – ‘the data subject has given explicit consent...’
Recipient or categories of recipients of the processed data	For medical research the data will be shared with 3rd parties with whom we have agreed to carry out research activities from time to time.
Rights to object and the national data opt-out	You have a right to object under the GDPR to information that identifies you being used or shared for medical research purposes. Please contact us if you wish to opt-out.
Right to access and correct	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have the right to access your medical record and have any errors or mistakes corrected. Please speak to a member of staff if you wish to know more about this. • We are not aware of any circumstances in which you will have the right to delete correct information from your medical record; although you are free to obtain your own legal advice if you believe there is no lawful purpose for which we hold the information and contact us if that legal advice confirms a different view.
Retention period	Medical records will be kept in line with the law and national guidance.
Right to complain	You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office. If you wish to complain follow this link https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/ or call the helpline 0303 123 1113

Part 3 – How your information is used to meet legal requirements

How your information is shared so that we can meet our legal requirements

The law requires us to share information from your medical records in certain circumstances. Information is shared so that Public Health England can, for example

- plan and manage services;
- check that the care being provided is safe;
- prevent infectious diseases from spreading.

We may need to share information with the Care Quality Commission and the local health protection team (or Public Health England) when the law requires us to do so. Please see below for more information.

We must also share your information if a court of law orders us to do so.

Care Quality Commission (CQC)

- The CQC regulates health and social care services to ensure that safe care is provided.
- The law says that we must report certain serious events to the CQC, for example, when patient safety has been put at risk.
- For more information about the CQC see: <http://www.cqc.org.uk/>

Public Health

- The law requires us to share data for public health reasons, for example to prevent the spread of infectious diseases or other diseases which threaten the health of the population.
- We will report the relevant information to local health protection team or Public Health England.
- For more information about Public Health England and disease reporting see: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/notifiable-diseases-and-causative-organisms-how-to-report>

We are required by law to provide you with the following information about how we handle your information and our legal obligations to share data.

Purpose of the processing	Compliance with legal obligations or court order.
----------------------------------	---

Lawful basis for processing	The following sections of the GDPR mean that we can share information when the law tells us to. Article 6(1)(c) – ‘processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject...’ Article 9(2)(h) – ‘processing is necessary for the purpose of preventative...medicine...the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services...’
Recipient or categories of recipients of the processed data	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The data will be shared with the Care Quality Commission. • The data will be shared with our local health protection team or Public Health England. • The data will be shared with the court if ordered.
Rights to object and the national data opt-out	There are very limited rights to object when the law requires information to be shared but government policy allows some rights of objection as set out below. Public health <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legally information must be shared under public health legislation. This means that you are unable to object. Care Quality Commission <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legally information must be shared when the Care Quality Commission needs it for their regulatory functions. This means that you are unable to object. Court order <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your information must be shared if it ordered by a court. This means that you are unable to object.
Right to access and correct	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have the right to access your medical record and have any errors or mistakes corrected. Please speak to a member of staff if you wish to know more about this. • We are not aware of any circumstances in which you will have the right to delete correct information from your medical record; although you are free to obtain your own legal advice if you believe there is no lawful purpose for which we hold the information and contact us if that legal advice confirms a different view.
Retention period	Medical records will be kept in line with the law and national guidance.
Right to complain	You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office. If you wish to complain follow this link https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/ or call the helpline 0303 123 1113

How we protect your data

we take the security of your data seriously and take all appropriate steps to protect it from unauthorised access, loss and misuse. We never sell any of your personal data for any purpose. Any sensitive personal data we may collect (such as what is part of your medical records) is never used for marketing purposes and access to such data is further restricted.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We use third parties to support, manage or deliver some of our day to day business services. As a result, we may share non-sensitive personal data (such as phone numbers, email addresses and IP addresses) with the following types of companies that we work with:

- Companies that help us deliver our emails and electronic communications with you.
- Companies and contractors that support our website, phone handling and other IT/business systems.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time to reflect how we use your personal data. We will make reasonable efforts to notify our current patients of major changes to this policy that will have a significant impact on their rights. We may post a new version of this policy on our website or we may email it to affected patients if we hold your email address.

Any Questions?

If you have any questions relating to how we use your data that is not covered in this policy then please email info@dariorochira.co.uk.

